Terms & Conditions

In accepting your offer, you have agreed to the following:

In Accept Part I:Admissions Declaration

Applicants are required to acknowledge the conditions that relate to their application. These include a declaration and consent regarding disclosure of information, and acknowledgement of action that the University may take in certain circumstances.

RTP Fee Offset

Recipients must include acknowledgement, as outlined in their offer, of their support through an 'Australian Government Research Training Program Scholarship'.

UNSW Privacy Code of Practice

Students are required to read and acknowledge the University's policy on privacy and personal information, including obligations under relevant legislation.

In Accept Part II:Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

Students are required to acknowledge their responsibilities to be informed about and comply with the University's standards on good academic practice and avoiding plagiarism, and of the programs and resources available to help them avoid plagiarism.

Acceptable Use of UNSW Information Resources Policy

Students are required to acknowledge their responsibilities to be informed about and comply with the University's policies on access to and use of information technology systems and resources.

Assessment Policy

Students are required to read and acknowledge the University's policy on assessment, including information on communication of assessment requirements to students, assessment in courses (both formative and summative) and feedback to students.

Information Literacy

Students are required to read about and acknowledge the University's commitment to developing students' information literacy through a range of programs. Programs include the ELISE online tutorial that must be completed by all commencing undergraduate students.

Official University Communications

The University sends official communications to students via their UNSW Student email account, and news and announcements on myUNSW. Students are required to sign into and read their student email at least twice a week on different days. Students are also required to sign into myUNSW and read their news and announcements and check their To Do items at least twice a week on different days. Occasionally students will be emailed by student organisations and student representatives via their student email account.

Research Code of Conduct

The UNSW Research Code of Conduct is the underlying policy governing the responsible conduct of research at UNSW. It sets out guidelines on how our researchers must conduct their research activities in an ethical and professional manner, ensuring validity and accuracy in the collection and reporting of data.

Student Code of Conduct

Upon your enrolment at UNSW, you share responsibility with us for maintaining a safe, harmonious and tolerant University environment. All UNSW students are required to read and comply with the Student Code of Conduct and the Student Misconduct Procedures. Any breach of the Code by a student could result in action being taken under the Student Misconduct Procedures, which can include expulsion from the university.

UNSW Enrolment Declaration & Consent

Students enrolling at UNSW are required to acknowledge the conditions that relate to their enrolment. These include a declaration and consent regarding disclosure of information, and acknowledgement of action that the University may take in certain circumstances.

UNSW Fees Policy

Students are required to read and acknowledge the University's fee policy, including information about tuition fees and other charges.

UNSW Intellectual Property Policy Declaration & Consent

Matters considered in this Policy include the nature of IP, its ownership, exploitation and the associated specific procedures adopted within the University to manage IP. The University requires an acknowledgment that students have read, understood and agreed to the application of the policy.

UNSW Privacy Code of Practice

Students are required to read and acknowledge the University's policy on privacy and personal information, including obligations under relevant legislation.

Section F. TAX FILE NUMBER (TFN)Tax File Number
(TFN)

TFN entered

To be eligible for a SA HELP loan, you MUST provide a copy of your 'Certificate of Application for a TFN' as proof that you have applied for a TFN. You will then need to advise the University of New South Wales of your TFN on or before the date on which the fee is payable of your commencing Term. If you do not provide your TFN by the census date, you will need to pay your amount of Student Services and Amenities Fee upfront and in full. Please contact The Nucleus: Student Hub for further information.

Declining to quote your TFN is not an offence. However, you will not be able to get a SA HELP loan for the amount of your student services and amenities fee that remains unpaid on the date payable unless you give the University of New South Wales, on or before that date, either your TFN or the certificate from the ATO stating you have applied for a TFN.

To be eligible for a SA HELP loan, your TFN and personal information provided in this form needs to be verified with the ATO. If, by the date payable, your information is not assessed as correct, your application will not be finalised and you will be ineligible for a SA HELP loan.

The Department and your provider are authorised under the Higher Education Support Act 2003 (the Act) to collect and retain your TFN only for the purpose of reporting details of your SA HELP loan to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). Privacy and taxation laws protect your TFN information. There may be severe penalties if these laws are broken. If you want to use a SA HELP loan to pay for your student services and amenities fee, you must meet the TFN requirements. This is because repayments on your HELP debt are made through the Australian taxation system.

Note: TFNs are usually provided within 28 days of application. It is essential that you apply early to make sure you have your TFN on or before the census date. For more information on requesting a TFN, visit www.ato.gov.au.

Section G. DECLARATION

By submitting this SA-HELP application, you are declaring that you agree to the following statements:

☒ I am requesting that:

- the Government lends me the amount of the fee that remains unpaid on the date on which the fee is payable. I will not receive the money but it will be paid to my provider on my behalf.

☒ I understand that:

- I will visit MyHELPBalance Portal regularly during my studies to ensure my records are accurate, and that my records include all units of study I have undertaken at UNSW and at other Providers. I can visit www.studyassist.gov.au for more information.
- I have an obligation to repay to the ATO the amount that the Government has loaned me, regardless of whether I complete my studies or not, and regardless of where I live, including overseas.
- my Higher Education Loan Program (HELP) debt will be indexed annually in line with HESA, which I also agree to repay to the ATO.
- I am able to cancel this request, in writing, at any time, with my provider, and it will no longer apply from that time. However, this must be done by the date on which the fee is payable otherwise I will have a debt to the Government that I am legally required to repay.

☒ I have read the SA-HELP information booklet and I am aware of my obligations if I receive SA-HELP assistance.

☒ I declare that the information on this SA-HELP application is complete and correct and I can produce documents to verify this if required.

☒ I understand that if my eligibility for a SA-HELP loan changes, I must notify the University of New South Wales.

☒ by submitting this form, I am consenting to the collection, use and disclosure of my personal information as outlined in Note 1.

By submitting this form you understand that:

The Department of Education and Training (the department) collects your personal information, including your TFN, in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles for the purpose of administering Government assistance, including verifying eligibility for a HELP loan and for overseas HELP debt recovery under the Higher Education Support Act 2003 (the Act). The department also collects your personal information for the purpose of research, statistics, policy formation and program management. If you do not provide the information required on this SA-HELP application you may not be eligible for Government Assistance.

The authority to collect and share your personal information is contained in section 19-70 and Division 180 of the Act. Your personal information may be shared with other government agencies including, but not limited to, the ATO and the Department of Immigration and Border Protection. Information may also be shared with overseas agencies for the purpose of HELP debt collection. Your personal information will not be disclosed without your consent unless authorised or required by law.

By submitting this SA-HELP application, you consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as outlined above.

Full details of how the department handles personal information for the purpose of HELP loans is available at www.studyassist.gov.au.

The department's Privacy Policy is available at www.education.gov.au/condensed-privacy-policy. Should you wish to correct the personal information provided on this SA-HELP application please contact your provider directly.

The department has endeavoured to ensure that the information in this publication is consistent with the Act and guidelines made under the Act. However, if there is any inconsistency between this form and the Act or guidelines, the Act will take precedence.

Giving false or misleading information is a serious offence under the Criminal Code Act 1995.

☒ I have read and understood the above.

Section H. REPAYING YOUR LOAN

Once your income is above a certain level (the minimum compulsory repayment threshold), you are required to make compulsory HELP debt repayments to the ATO through the Australian tax system. The threshold is indexed annually. In accordance with Chapter 4 of HESA, these repayments will continue while your income is above the compulsory repayment threshold until you have repaid your whole debt. This will continue to occur, even if you have not completed your studies or have moved overseas.

You can view your HELP debt, confirm your payment reference number and view payment options online. To do so, you need to create a myGov account and link it to the ATO's online services—find out how at: www.ato.gov.au/OnlineLoanBalance.

For more information about repaying your HELP debt, visit www.ato.gov.au/getloaninfo or phone 13 28 61 between 8:00am and 6:00pm Monday to Friday AEST.

NOTE 1: USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your personal information, including your TFN, is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The Australian Government Department of Education (the department) (GPO Box 9880, Canberra ACT 2601, phone: 1300 566 046) collects your personal information for the purpose of administering the HELP scheme, which includes verifying your eligibility for a loan and for overseas HELP debt recovery under HESA. The department also collects your personal information for the purpose of research, statistics, policy formation and broader HELP program management. The collection, use and disclosure of your personal information is authorised under section 19–70 and/or Division 180 of HESA. If you do not provide the information required on this form, you may not be eligible for Government assistance.

The department may disclose your information to Australian Government agencies, including:

- the ATO for the purposes of calculating and administering your HELP debt;
- the Department of Human Services for the purposes of pre-populating your claim form for a student payment and assessing or reviewing your eligibility or entitlement for a student payment; and
- the Commonwealth Ombudsman if you lodge a complaint in relation to your HELP loan or compliance by your provider with HESA.

Your personal information may also be disclosed to a Tuition Protection Administrator for the purposes of administering the Tuition Protection Scheme if required. The department may also disclose your information to a domestic entity (other than the ATO) or to an overseas entity for the purposes of HELP debt collection. The department will not disclose your personal information for any other purpose without first seeking your consent, unless that disclosure is authorised or required by law.

You can find more information about the way in which the department will manage your personal information, including how to access and correct your information, and how to make a complaint, in the department's privacy policy at www.education.gov.au/privacy, or by requesting a copy from the department at privacy@education.gov.au.
